PROJECTS

Feel Like Yourself: Social Media Platform ↗

Jan 2025

C#, JavaScript, EJS, Node.js, CSS, HTML, SQLite, REST-API, ASP.NET

- * Developed a social media platform to enhance user interaction through posting, liking, and browsing shared content, with admin capabilities for management and moderation.
- * Backend built with C# and ASP.NET, featuring authentication, pagination, and structured data access; integrated with SQLite and utilized Entity Framework for ORM.
- * Frontend rendered using EJS, HTML, CSS, and JavaScript, styled for usability and responsiveness; client-server interaction handled through REST APIs.

TypeBlitz: A Multilingual Typing Speed Game ↗

Nov 2024

Java, JavaFX, JavaFX CSS, Multilingual Dictionary Support

- * Designed and developed TypeBlitz, a JavaFX-based typing game to help users improve typing speed and accuracy through real-time feedback and multilingual support.
- * Implemented core features including random word generation, color-coded feedback, and score tracking, enhancing engagement and interactivity.
- * Built with Java, JavaFX, and JavaFX CSS, and supported dynamic dictionaries for multilingual gameplay.

Boxing Club: SQL Database ↗

Nov 2024

SQL, Microsoft SQL Server, Oracle SQL, Vertabelo

- * Designed and implemented a relational database system for a boxing club to manage operations including boxers, matches, sponsors, trainers, and weight classes.
- * Defined a structured SQL schema with referential integrity, enabling efficient data storage, retrieval, and analysis for decision-making.
- * Created and tested in both Microsoft SQL Server and Oracle, with reusable scripts for schema creation, data insertion, and analytical queries.
- * Implemented complex SQL queries, stored procedures, and triggers to automate scoring logic, enforce business rules, and support advanced analytics.
